CENTER FOR PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

Credential verification summary

Active · Confirmed in the CPS credential record

Ella Heitmeyer

Certificate in Clinical Psychology

Honors Distinction

Certificate ID: CPS-2026-028C6B81E7204C9C

Completed: November 1, 2026

Issued: November 1, 2026

Designation: Honors Distinction

Status checked: 2026-11-21 20:35:35 UTC

Program scope

The Clinical Psychology Certificate Program introduces the foundations, assessment methods, diagnostic concepts, and therapeutic approaches associated with clinical psychology. Study extends to treatment planning and applications in different settings, with attention to ethical and legal considerations. It provides program study in these subjects and does not confer clinical licensure.

Program areas: Foundations of Clinical Psychology; Diagnostic Methods in Clinical Psychology; Treatment Planning and Implementation; Applied Clinical Psychology in Different Settings.

Recorded basis of the award

Core program requirements satisfied according to the policy and evidence saved with this award.

28 required quizzes passed.

7 additional honors assignments approved.

Check the current online record

This summary reflects the record at the time shown. Scan the code or use the direct link to check its current status before relying on a saved copy.

https://professionalstudies.org/credentials/CPS-2026-028C6B81E7204C9C

A verification summary is a reference copy, separate from the issued certificate. CPS maintains the completion record. Contact

Student Services through the CPS website for discrepancies.